
College of Music: Calendar

Our courses are open to students of all levels, from beginners to intermediates to professionals, all year round. We are currently accepting applications for The College program 2010-2011.

*please note that our College program is based upon semester to mirror the structure of a typical university program accommodating our international students. However, Il Trillo is a private, non-profit, music school not affiliated with government-run institutions and therefore does not offer an official degree program.
